Protect our Children - Supervisors Jacob and Cox Bring Sex Offender Ordinance to the Board of Supervisors

Supervisors Greg Cox and Diane Jacob will be proposing a new Sex Offender Loitering Ordinance to the Board of Supervisors on Tuesday, November 14. This new ordinance will prohibit registered sex offenders from loitering within 300 feet of schools, parks and/or other child-oriented locations. As several cities in the region have already adopted similar ordinances, the County wants to ensure that children are protected in the unincorporated areas as well.

WHEN: Tuesday, November 14, 2006

Board meeting starts at 9AM (this is item number 1 on the agenda)

WHERE: County Administration Building

1600 Pacific Highway
